

There's a story in everybody's eyes

Bedtime Story

Animals or humans
If you're alive
You've got something to say
Tonight I'll take you to a place
Where I used to go
When I was just a little boy
The moon outside my window
I still can hear his voice
My Grandpa lives in me
Telling me my favorite one
About the lion and his grandson

But I never knew

My bedtime story was true

Someday I'll talk with animals

The bedtime story
That my Grandpa knew
He never told me
Was true

Bedtime story
Bedtime story

There's a necklace of animals and beads
Carved from a wise tree
Whoever you are
When you wear it you can speak
With every creature big or small
You can hear them all
And understand the words
Of elephants and birds and
I still can see his face
My Grandpa looks like me
Teaching me a lion's roar
What I know now I didn't know before

He never said

My bedtime story was true

Someday I'll talk with animals

The bedtime story
That my Grandpa knew
He never told me
Was true

Bedtime story
Bedtime story

So now I know the truth

Every living thing has a song to sing

We may all use different words
But we each have a heart
And that's where love is heard

Bedtime story

Someday I'll talk with animals

The bedtime story
That my Grandpa knew
He never told me
Was true

I didn't know
