

Hi, bye
I wanna stay but I'm shy
I'll try, to just relax
I don't know why I'm so shy
All I ever want to do is hide

'Cause I'm so shy

I love to sing but I'm shy

I sing
For the earth and to the sky
But no one
Ever gets to be
Close enough to hear me

'Cause I'm so shy

Sometimes I find myself
Singing with the birds
A thousand of them
And only me
Now and then I dream I see
People in the wings
Who have come to hear me

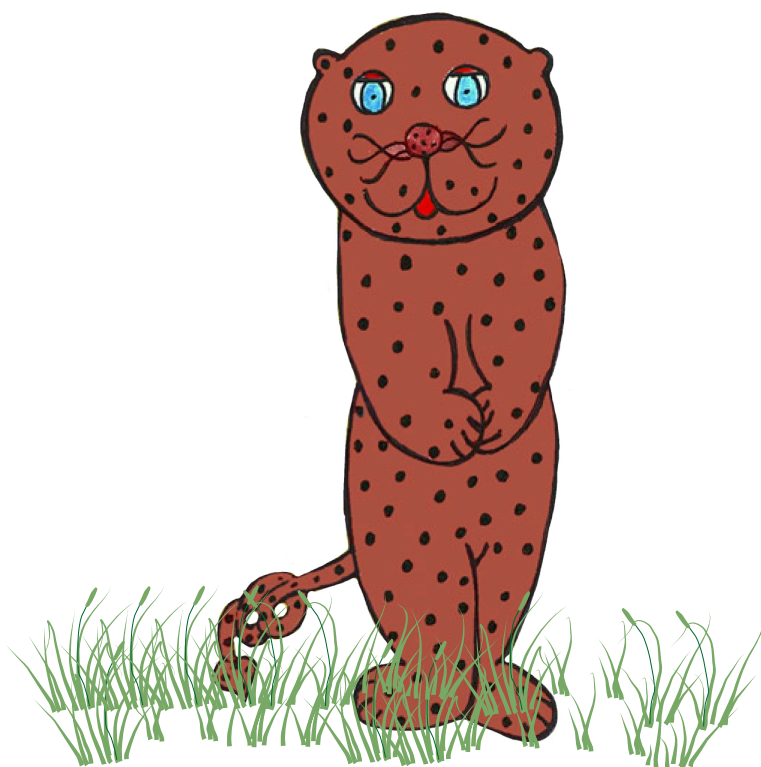

'Cause I'm not to shy to sing

In me
I'd like to change just one thing
I wish I wasn't so afraid
To be free
I don't know
Why I'm so terrified

I've just always been
So shy

I'm So Shy

My brand new friends try to help
Their love is the best
I've ever felt
They show me
What it's like to be
Part of a family
It's just fine with them

That I'm so shy

Mandy and the Menagerie know Kali
Is more than spots
And a voice that's pretty

They love who I am
And I am shy

I'm their friend with pride
Even though I'm so shy
